And of course, you are encouraged to pray for him, his family, his current congregation, for our ministry, and for the Baters as they prepare for their move.

LIGHT OF THE VALLEY 25TH ANNIVERSARY On Sunday, March 19th our sister church in Layton will be celebrating their 25th anniversary. We are invited and encouraged to celebrate with them. A special worship service will be held at 5PM with a meal to follow.

Next Sunday ... We continue our series about how Jesus fights for us: "For Us Fights the Valiant One — to Win New Life." We will hear some of the most famous words about Jesus as we listen in on a conversation that he had with a man named Nicodemus. Jesus explained that what people need is a whole new life. He made clear also that he came to win and to deliver that new and eternal life to us.

Midweek Lenten Worship — Each Thursday evening at 7PM during Lent we'll gather for extra time in God's Word. We'll be turning to the history of our Lord's Passion with the theme "Symbols of Lent." This week we'll learn from 30 silver coins. The services last about 45 minutes.

We'll be having potluck dinners before every-other Thursday service. That means no potluck this week. The next potluck will be March 16th.
