Next Sunday... When Jesus visited the town in which he had grown up, people were amazed when he spoke and taught God's Word. But that amazement quickly turned to skepticism, as people began to question Jesus' authority. We will hear other sections of Scripture that warn us about rejection of God's message; he tells us that we should not be shocked when it happens. Instead, like Jesus, we continue to proclaim the Word, confident that God, who conquered our in-born hostility to him, can do the same for those who hear his Word.
