✠ ✠ ✠

Next Sunday will be the 50th day after Easter Sunday, so we will remember what happened on the fiftieth day after the first Easter Sunday. It was on that day in Jerusalem, on a spring harvest festival called Pentecost, that the Holy Spirit lavished some jaw-dropping gifts on the followers of Jesus. They were able to speak instantly in many foreign languages—a perfect gift for telling the good news about Jesus to people who were in Jerusalem from all over the world. What happened on Pentecost was the spark that ignited the early church's mission—a mission that has reached us, a mission that we're a part of now. Next Sunday we'll praise the Holy Spirit, receive his gifts as he works through the Word and the Supper, and pray for his continued energy to keep sharing the gospel.
