Next Sunday we'll have a "throwback" service... We'll go back in time not a few decades but a few centuries. We will listen to and sing some music that was common around the time of the Lutheran Reformation, the mid-1500's. Some of the hymns and songs will be familiar, since we still sing them in our day. Others, though, will be new to us, and our choir will give us a taste of what they sound like. We'll do this in order to remember that we are connected to Christians of all eras of history and of many different cultures. The Church of God that they Holy Spirit fueled on Pentecost includes both Christians of the past and us today!

The Scripture readings next Sunday will remind us that we worship one God, who reveals himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This teaching of the Trinity enables us to worship our God as he really is, even though his essence is beyond our comprehension. Our God will be with us next Sunday as he is today, giving us his grace and peace, hearing our prayers and praise.
