Please remember in your prayers ... thanks to God for the birth of Tess Finnigan, daughter of Ross and Sheena, and for the washing of Holy Baptism... all who are struggling with health issues, including Jerrold Stump, recovering from eye problems; Ruth Ohl, an extended family member of Joyce Hall, as Ruth deals with a recent cancer diagnosis; Kourtnee Jacob, who is recovering from bronchitis and preparing for an upcoming surgery next month; the many others who suffer from pain and poor health daily... Pastor Dan Heiderich (a former classmate of Pastor Micheel) and his wife, Amanda, as they mourn the loss of their two-month-old daughter, Helena... thanks for blessing the stewardship Bible studies held so far, and asking his blessing on those yet to come... all who are not in our fellowship this morning.

LOOKING AHEAD ———>

CHILDRENS CHRISTMAS SERVICE. Even though it seems like Christmas is a long time off, our teachers have begun to prepare for the children's Christmas Service on Sunday, December 19th. Please contact Sarah Augustine if you are planning to have your child participate in the service.

Next Sunday ... is the Commemoration of the Reformation of the Church. It was on October 31, 1517, that a Roman Catholic monk and professor named Martin Luther proposed a debate about things going on in his church. That event sparked a searching of the Scriptures by many people over many years, which resulted in the good news of God's free gift of forgiveness being proclaimed to many people... including us! Next week we highlight the Bible truths that the Reformation emphasized: we are saved by God's grace, through faith in Christ. Scripture readings: Jeremiah 31:31-34, Romans 3:19-28, John 8:31-36.
